

We live our culture

in St. Landry Parish, Louisiana.

HISTORY LIVES. Discover St. Landry Parish's rich past where you will find the third oldest settlement in Louisiana dating back to the 1700s. Tour churches for architecture, art and stained glass collections. Home to the only shrine in the U.S. where a documented miracle occurred. Additional attractions of note include the Jean Lafitte National Park Prairie Cultural Center the Louisiana Orphan Train Museum.

SHOP AND SEE. Known as Acadiana's Antique Capital, our historic communities offer 500+ vendors offering antiques and collectibles, art galleries and working studios all within a 25 mile radius. St. Landry Parish has six designated Louisiana cultural districts where original works of art are tax free!

TAP YOUR FEET. As the home of zydeco music and Louisiana's Cajun Music Hall of Fame and Museum, be sure to pack your dancing shoes. Enjoy live music at our many restaurants, local jam sessions and the world renown "Grand Old Opry" style performance, en française, held every Saturday night at the historic Liberty Theatre.

WE LIVE TO EAT. You won't go hungry with our award winning Cajun and Creole restaurants and cafés. Sample locally crafted beer at Bayou Teche Brewing, created with our local cuisine in mind. Get your goodies to go at our many specialty meat shops, spice houses and local farmers markets.

FROM TRASH TO TREASURE. Take a tour of our nationally recognized landfill to see how our trash is turned into reusable fuel while preserving our scenic countryside. Then visit our award winning, sustainably designed Visitor Information Center, showcasing native eco-systems.
